As requested, I have attached the flyer for the event. This is a good link to send out to others regarding our process: <https://www.warriorrising.org/our-process>

For an overview of what Warrior Rising is all about, I would draw your attention to these videos on our youtube channel that talk about WR's origins and what we do:

There are also videos on the organization's youtube channel with some of our veterans if you'd like to peruse them and more of our Hall of Valor can be found on our website

Here are examples of prior Business showers:

We'd be most happy to talk to anyone that you'd like to connect us with who might have more questions as well.

Lastly, here is the run of show/Agenda for the Business Shower (all our Business Showers follow a very similar format). We're very grateful to Tim Jensen of Grunt Style (a mutual connection) for hosting.
